

IWAS Wheelchair Fencing (IWF)

Referee Seminar and Examinations

IWAS IWFC would like to invite its Member Nations to submit names of candidates to attend Wheelchair Fencing Referee Seminar, for examinations in all 3 weapons. (leading to an IWF referee licence "B").

The IWAS Wheelchair Fencing Referee Examinations are offered to referees without a valid IWF referee licence.

The Examinations will be conducted by IWF Referee Commissioners.

The Criteria for candidates that want to attend is as follows:

- Each Nation can nominate a maximum of three candidates to attend, or otherwise agreed by the IWF Referee Commission.
- All candidates must be nominated by their IWAS Member and/or Fencing Federation
- All candidates MUST have a good understanding of English
- All candidates must have experience as a referee at national level in two weapons (or otherwise agreed with the Referee commission after application by candidate)
- All candidates must provide IWAS with a passport size electronic photograph for their licence when they register for the training.

Registration and Fees:

Candidates are required to register and pay their Registration Fee of €100 per candidate, to IWAS at least 4 weeks prior to the Referee Seminar. Candidates must include a CV listing their refereeing experience and qualification and a passport style photograph.

The IWAS office will confirm the candidate's entry registration onto the course. If candidates are not accepted onto the course for whatever reason, their Registration Fee will be returned to them.

For those candidates that gain a B Licence, the Registration Fee will include first year's licence fee. (The Registration Fee is not refunded if you do not pass the exam)

Programme and Exam Procedure:

The schedule information and Examination Procedure is available separately and may be subject to last minute changes as advised by the Referee Commission. All candidates will be kept up to date with information regarding the Seminar and examinations.
